

Five Music Ministry Principles

First: Music choices do not create a community; a community creates music choices.

Ephesians 4:2-3, "Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace."

Second: Every generation counts.

1 Timothy 5:1 -2, "Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but exhort him as if he were your father. Treat younger men as brothers, older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters."

Third: A relay race is won or lost at the baton handoff.

Psalms 102:18 (LB), "I am recording this so that future generations will also praise the Lord for all that he has done."

Fourth: Our church exists for those who need to be here, not just for those who are here.

Acts 2:39, "The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call."

Fifth: Let leaders lead.

Hebrews 13:17, "Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, because they keep watch over you as those who must give an account."

Why is worship ministry so important?

Through worship God rescues _____.

Acts 16:25-26, "About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everyone's chains came loose."

Through worship God rescues _____.

Acts 16:27-33, "The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted, 'Don't harm yourself! We are all here!' The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. He then brought them out and asked, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?' They replied, 'Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household.' Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his household were baptized."
